MAYOR'S

Dear Citizens:

The Department of Parks and Recreation is gearing-up for another exciting spring and summer season! This year promises to provide a wide array of recreation programs and special events within Allentown's beautiful park system.

Our popular Summer Playground Program is entering its 104th year culminating in a spectacular Romper Day celebration on Monday, August 7. This free youth program provides a tremendous opportunity for our Allentown youth to play outside all summer long. (see page 15 for more details.)

One focus this year is aquatics programming for youth ages 13 – 18, including Teen Pool Parties and Teen Flick 'N Float Movie Night. (see page 11 for more details.)

Jordan Park Fitness Equipment

Trexler Park

Jordan Park:

Jordan Park Skate Park: Designs for a skate park in the former clay tennis courts at Jordan Park will be put together, using community input, during the spring and summer of 2017.

Stevens Park:

The City of Allentown completed a park redesign at Stevens Park, with a grand opening planned for spring 2017. This project is funded by the city, DCNR and CDBG monies and in-kind work. Improvements were made to the park layout, and upgraded amenities include the pavilion, playground, walking path, and the addition of a community stage performing area.

Signage Plan:

The City of Allentown completed a Master Way-Finding Signage Plan for the park system, and portions of this plan are being implemented as funding permits. Irving, Jordan and Cedar pools, Malcolm Gross Memorial Rose Garden, Parks & Recreation Office, Friends of the Allentown Parks Office, Canal Park, and Roosevelt Park are among the next locations slated for signage.

Trexler Park Bicycle/ Pedestrian Signage:

New signage was installed in Trexler Park to provide directions and guidelines for pedestrians and bicyclists for using the park safely and properly. Trexler Park is open to bicycle and pedestrian traffic every day, per a change in city ordinance during the fall of 2016.

Dixon St. Dog Park:

Construction of a 2-acre dog park is schedule to begin this spring in Trout Creek Parkway. The design includes two areas to accommodate smaller and larger dogs, as well as a permitting process to ensure dogs are licensed, vaccinated and supervised by responsible pet owners.

Non-Native/Invasive Plants in Allentown's Parks

What, where and how to help!

According to the PA Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR), invasive plants are “plants which grow quickly and aggressively, spreading and displacing other plants.” These plants are generally non-native; they came from outside of Pennsylvania and often from other countries. They are a real threat to the health of our natural environment—according to DCNR, 5% of Pennsylvania’s native plant species had been eliminated in 2000, and another 25% were in danger of extinction, largely as a result of invasive plants.

Allentown’s parks, like many in Pennsylvania and across the country, experience issues with non-native, invasive plant species growing aggressively and crowding out the local, native plant species. Native plant species serve the local animals, insects, and birds, so changes to this balance of available plant species threatens their survival.

Common Invasive Plants in Allentown’s Parks:

Purple Loosestrife (Lythrum salicaria)

Japanese Hops (Humulus japonica)

Lesser Celandine (Ficaria verna)

Star of Bethlehem (Ornithogalum umbellatum)

Open areas of Allentown’s parks, including the riparian buffers that protect the creeks and streams, must be managed properly in order to thrive. This includes the regular removal of invasive plants, and the planting of native species that contribute to the ecosystem of the park.

Special thanks to the Allentown Environmental Advisory Council for their contributions to this article.

Did You Know?

Friends of the Allentown Parks removed 638 bags of invasive plants in 2016 in Allentown’s parks, and have many more volunteer clean ups scheduled for 2017!

How to Help

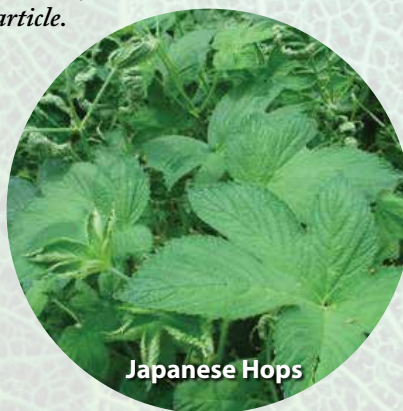

- To learn to identify invasive plant species and assist with removal of these plants, please contact Friends of the Allentown Parks to be part of a volunteer park clean up: www.allentownparks.org or 610-432-7275.
- Use native plants in your landscaping. Utilize the DCNR Plant Smart database: <http://iconservepa.org/plantsmart>

What is a Riparian Buffer?

A riparian buffer is an area that surrounds a creek or stream, filled with native plants, grasses, and shrubs. A riparian buffer, sometimes also called a vegetation buffer, protects the quality of the water in the creek or stream, and provides necessary habitat for insects, birds and wildlife that are essential to the ecosystem surrounding the water. These buffers also help prevent stream bank erosion.
